

Privacy Notice

Ohio Teamsters Credit Union is owned by its members and run by a board of directors you elect. You can be confident that your financial privacy is a top priority of this credit union. We are required by law to give you this privacy notice to explain how we collect, use and safeguard your personal financial information. If you have any questions, please contact a member service representative at 216-567-6700 or mgr@ohioteamsterscu.com.

The Credit Union collects nonpublic personal information about you from the following sources:

- Information we receive from you on membership and loan applications and other forms, including electronic forms (i.e. Credit Union website);
- Information about your transactions with us or others;
- Information we receive from a consumer reporting agency; and
- Information obtained when verifying the information you provide on an application or other forms, such as from your current or past employers.

We are committed to providing you with the competitive products and services designed to meet your financial needs, which necessitates that we share information about you to complete your transactions and to provide you with certain financial opportunities. In order to do so, we have entered into agreements with other companies that provide either services to us or additional financial products for you to consider. Each of these companies have been approved by the credit union's Board of Directors.

We do not knowingly accept information from children under the age of 13.

Our website does not collect cookies.

We may disclose all of the information we collect as described above to other financial institutions with whom we have joint marketing agreements.

We may also collect about you under other circumstances as permitted or required by law. These disclosures typically include information to process transactions on your behalf, conduct the operations of our credit union, follow your instructions, or protect the security of our financial records.

The credit union restricts access to nonpublic personal information about you to those employees who have a specific business purpose for using it. Our employees are trained on the importance of maintaining confidentiality and member privacy. We maintain physical, electronic, and procedural safeguards that comply with federal regulations and leading industry practices to safeguard your nonpublic personal information.
